The Walama Restoration Project (WRP) is a non-profit organization dedicated to environmental stewardship and biological diversity through education and non-chemical habitat restoration. Join us this quarter to advocate and protect critically imperiled Willamette valley habitat via Community Engagement and Non-Chemical Prairie Restoration techniques such as: selective invasive species removal, site preparation and maintenance, native plant propagation and botany surveying. Schedules are flexible.

To Apply:
Submit a resume and letter of interest to:
krystal@walamarestoration.org

For more info contact Krystal:
Cell phone: 541-515-8684
Office phone: 541-484-3939