Environmental Education SPRING Internship

Come join the education team of the Audubon Society of Portland and lead groups of kids eager to learn about the region’s wild areas and wildlife. In this internship, you will gain the experience needed to lead tours of our sanctuary to elementary-age children. Assist with our school programs and field trips to Mount St. Helens, Ape Caves, Beacon Rock and the Oregon Coast.

Responsibilities

- Lead Sanctuary Tours for elementary children
- Assist with in-school programs and field trips
- Special projects and other duties as assigned

Requirements

- Open to 3rd or 4th year college students, recent graduates and/or equivalent experience working with school aged children
- Must be positive, enthusiastic, responsible, a team player and possess good communication skills
- Background or experience in education, environmental education, natural sciences, biology, or other related fields preferred

Time Commitment

This is a full or part-time program from March 17– June 5, 2015.

Program Perks

Sign up with Portland Audubon as an Intern and you will gain:

- College credit (check with your university)
- Experience teaching and developing environmental education programs with one of the oldest, most respected environmental organizations in the Pacific Northwest
- Knowledge of the ecology of the Pacific Northwest
- $120 stipend per week (full time) or $60 per week (part time)
- Possible extension of internship into the summer

To Apply
Please send (by mail only) a cover letter and résumé with references to:

Audubon Society of Portland  Attn: Ian Abraham
SPRING Education Internship
5151 NW Cornell Rd
Portland OR  97210-1081

Deadline is March 4 at 4 p.m. with interviews conducted on March 11. Applications are encouraged prior to deadline. For more information, call Ian Abraham at 503-292-6855.